ing that the man who was supposed to have been murdered was thrown off a train by hitm at Cache Junction on Tuesday night. Harrison today said that the man was intoxicated and wore a brown coat with a yellow spot on the left side, that there was a scratch on his chin and blood on one wrist and the fingers of the same hand tied up in a rag. The other hand was all drawn up and crippled. This description tailles exactly with that of the dead man.

Another peculiar circumstance is that Stone, the supposed murderer, was taken before the dead man today and immediately exclaimed: "This is not Scotty." I never saw this man before." He said that 'Scotty." as he called him, had dark ourly hair and was much tailer than the dead man. On the other hand, men who were employed with Stone said that it was Scotty.

A new circumstance developed in the case tonight. A man named Mike O Brien informed the police that he knew of two men who knew the dead man and Detective Pender went with him and found them. They said that they came down on the train from Cache Junction with the dead man and his name was Lynch and that he came from Butte, Mont.

At Cache Junction Lynch was thrown off the train by the conductor and brakeman, but boarded another car on the same train. He came from Butte, where he had been employed at Brownell's livery stables and that he said he was going to Salt Lake, where he was to get the position of head coachman for Walker brothers, by whom he had been formerly employed in a similar position.

An autopsy was held tonight and it developed that the ball did not pass through the heart and it is now believed that the man was shot before reaching Ogden.

A runaway horse caused a panie on Washington avenue about 6 o'clock this evening. The animal broke loose from a rig at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and dashed madly down the sidewalk for three blocks. The street was crowded. Many rushed into stores and stairways to escape the hoofs of the frightened brute. Although there were several narrow escapes, no one was injured.
